Post 6-12-69

Change in Haiti

PORT - AU - PRINCE — Elois Maitre, chief of the Service Duvalier, Haiti's special police, has been dismissed, official sources said here.

The secret-police command is regarded as one of the strategic political jobs in the regime of President Francois Duvalier. There was speculation that Col. Max Dominique, Duvalier's son-in-law, was responsible for the dismissal. Dominique appears to have taken a more prominent hand in government affairs since Duvalier was taken ill early last month.